Pure Prescriptions™ created Prostate Elements™ in response to intense customer demand for an all-new cutting-edge formula for total prostate health. Frustrated with outdated saw palmetto formulas lagging years behind current research, our customers wanted a new product which incorporates the latest science pertaining to nutritional support for total prostate health. Prostate Elements™ is the result of our effort to answer that demand with a safe and highly effective product.

Pure Prescriptions™ is proud to introduce Prostate Elements™, an all-new formula using only top of the line prostate ingredients shown to:

- + Support positive hormone balance*
- + Promote good circulation within prostate tissue*
- + Provide antioxidant support for prostate tissue*
- + Inhibit inflammation within the prostate*
- + Support healthy immune function*

As a cutting-edge formula, some of the ingredients in Prostate Elements™ may be unfamiliar to you. Please review or request the accompanying support literature for a full description of each ingredient and its function. We feel that the more you know about nutritional support for the prostate...the more you'll appreciate what's inside of each capsule of Prostate Elements™.
